UPCOMING EVENTS

ZOOM SPEAKER: SUZANNE EVANS | MONDAY, MAY 10 AT 4:00 PM

"The Taste of Longing: Ethel Mulvaney and Her Starving Prisoners of War Cookbook"

Dr. Suzanne Evans is an Ottawa historian and writer, whose research and writing has a strong focus on women and war. Doing some research at the Canadian War Museum a few years ago, her attention was caught by an old and odd cookbook in the museum's library and she set out to discover everything she could about the Canadian woman of extraordinary fortitude who had compiled the cookbook, Ethel Mulvaney.

Suzanne's resulting book, "The Taste of Longing: Ethel Mulvaney and Her Starving Prisoners of War", is the fascinating and compelling story of one woman's resilience and endurance in the midst of indescribable hardship and suffering.

Join us on May 10 for a fascinating talk by Dr. Suzanne Evans about Ethel Mulvaney and her World War II cookbook.

Haley will send out the zoom link prior to the event.

UWC ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING | MONDAY, MAY 31 AT 5:30 PM

The AGM will be on May 31 at 5:30 pm. You will receive a package via e-mail or by mail two weeks before the meeting. The package will contain the agenda, the changes to the constitution that require approval, reports from the directors, decision on the allotment of the CFUW monies and the proxy forms. A summary of changes to the constitution is also outlined on page 4 of this newsletter. (The constitution is available under Member Resources on the website.)

If you are unable to attend the meeting (via Zoom) please send the proxy form, indicating the person whom you wish to represent you, to Susan Freeman, 3 Vermont Ave, Apt. 1, Toronto M6G 1X6. Please allow at least a week for the post as it seems to be very slow.

I remember last year writing something about the Merry Month of May, never imagining that this would be the second merry month in the same mess. I tried to think of something positive. 'To every cloud there is a silver lining.' Unfortunately, we have been through so much that we want a gold lining or even platinum or better still, just get rid of that cursed cloud. To misquote Churchill: (Hopefully) it is not the end of the beginning but rather the beginning of the end for the pandemic.

This will be my last message as president. Wendy McCallum, now our Treasurer, will replace me as of the AGM on May 31. Thanks to Jane for all of her hard work over four, sometimes very difficult years. She has written a piece about the many activities we have initiated since we have been in office. With Chris' leadership we have a fabulous, generous and admired scholarship program. With Marianne at the helm, the new Foundation has created a body of scholars that will provide the young women with friendship, honours and mentors. Our speakers' program is varied and always interesting and informative, thanks to Pam and before her Corinne and Ruth. Our Advocacy Committee, with first Lily and now Cecilia, is finding its causes and forging ahead with unity and enthusiasm. Our newsletter is brilliant and often featured as an example to other clubs thanks to Jo-Lynne and Ellen. Our website is superb. For the nitty gritty of the minutes, thanks to Merle, Carmie and Alida. Our money is well-managed and safe with first Nancy, then Kathy, then Wendy and soon Susan LeRoy. Our fundraising has been very successful thanks to Rosemary and Marianne. Thanks to Arlene for her brilliant art lectures and to Norah for chairing Current Events. Kudos to our assistant, Haley, who keeps all of our arrangements booked with the FC and Zoom. A very sincere thank you to all of them for their commitment to UWC.

The gala evenings for Romero House netted much needed funds for this wonderful organization. We all pulled together to collect clothing and household items twice a year before the plague. We have helped Sistering and Humewood House with monetary donations and collections. We are indeed fortunate to have these connections. Other great events were the book sale and an Evening with Bob Rae as fundraisers. We were working on having the next sale with the Heliconian Literary Series members and as many events as possible at the Innis Town Hall before the lights went out all over the world.

One of my favourite memories of these four years is meeting Kathleen Wynne for the CFUW Ontario Council Conference. I will always remember the joy of our senior members visiting with each other at the Golden Memories Tea. I will remember Betty, resplendent in her purple, surrounded by her lovely paintings and our admiration. I was also thrilled to reconnect with a former student, Chris Brown, who brings music to inmates and was so impressive in his commitment. I will remember the reception we had for our scholarship winners, their teachers and their very proud parents and how thrilled we were to meet these wonderful young women.

I have very much enjoyed my tenure and am immensely proud of the club and all that we have accomplished together.

Thank you all for your support and friendship,
All the best,

- Susan

CLUB NEWS

THE FACULTY CLUB

We have invited Roger Riendeau, former president of the Faculty Club Board of Directors, to attend our AGM on May 31 to bring us an update on plans for the Club.

WE'RE CHANGING DAY TO DAY

Thinking back on Susan's tenure as President of the Toronto University Women's Club, I am immediately reminded of a line in one of Cat Stevens' most popular songs, "I know we've come a long way."

When Susan first took office in 2017, our club supported 3 interest groups, bridge, bookclubs and monthly movie outings. In the space of 4 years, there's been a rapid growth in our membership and the number of activity groups we offer has soared.

Thanks to Susan's strong leadership and hard work, members have been able to enjoy, Spotlight, Out and About, International Dining, Wellness Wednesdays, Le Petit Cercle Francais, Toronto Symphony Outings and Lunch, Art History Lectures, Current Affairs, Patio Nights and City Walking Tours. Many of these activities have been reconfigured by convenors to adapt to Zoom delivery and they continue to interest members despite social distancing restrictions imposed by the pandemic. Discussions are well underway now to introduce and launch another 4 activity groups, Mahjong, Creative Writing, Photography and a Heliconian Bookclub.

We're so very fortunate to have access to such a wealth of stimulating activity groups and so indebted to Susan for her tireless efforts to enrich our club's programs.

- Jane

CONDOLENCES

A former member, Anna Farquheson's husband Bob has died. Bob was a retired professor from U of T. He and Anna were living at Christie Gardens. Many of our senior members will remember Anna. We have sent a card of sympathy from the club.

THANK YOU LILY

One of our valued board members, Lily Contento, is stepping down to make time for other commitments. Lily has served as chair of the Advocacy Committee and despite COVID restrictions, Lily organized the highly successful poinsettia sale which raised much needed money for Humewood House. It will be no surprise to anyone who knows Lily well, that her interests are many and varied. In addition to managing an online flower business and a real estate career, Lily is very busy writing her first novel and when the weather permits, she loves to sail on Lake Ontario.

The UWC board would like to thank Lily sincerely for her dedicated service to the club and for her decisive leadership on the Advocacy Committee. Under Lily's enthusiast direction, the committee has flourished and grown.

Lily will, of course, continue to be an active member of the club.

Lily, thank you for volunteering your time so generously to the UWC.

- Jane

CHANGES TO BYLAWS 1 AND 2

At the upcoming Annual General Meeting, there will be two motions made to approve changes to Bylaws 1 and 2.

Changes to Bylaw 1 are necessary to reflect the CFUW change approved recently at a meeting of members. While making these changes, other changes were made to reflect actual practices and improve clarity. This process also impacted Bylaw 2. There were several board meetings to review the changes, and they have been approved by the board.

You will shortly receive two documents prior to the Annual General Meeting that show all changes from the March 2019 documents.

The following is a summary of changes made:

BYLAW 1

- CFUW - Revised references to CFUW generally to CFUW Ontario Council;
- Membership - Reflects current practices to accommodate members who apply and pay online;
- Board-authorized donations - Moved from Bylaw 2 to Bylaw 1, and reworded to add clarity;
- Zoom Member Meetings - added 2.11 c to note the use of electronic meetings;
- Number of Directors - Specified the number as between 10 and 15;
- Directors' Terms - Corrected sections which define directors' terms to ensure board stability;
- Vice-President - Removed qualifier;
- Advocacy - Added more specificity to the CFUW Ontario Council Committee title; and
- Safekeeping of Securities - Noted need to use Schedule 1 bank.

BYLAW 2

- Board authorized donations - Moved from Bylaw 2 to Bylaw 1;
- Generally - this document was upgraded to improve clarity and language. It was reviewed by the Finance Committee of the club; and
- Signatures - added requirements similar to Bylaw 1.

There were small punctuation and spelling changes made to both bylaws.

CLUB HISTORY

Earlier this month, Wendy and I took a highly anticipated trip to our club's branch of the Bank of Montreal to open the UWC safety deposit box which had been locked up, untouched and forgotten for many years.

Despite speculation on the part of our President, that we might discover a treasure trove inside the box, we found instead a wealth of legal documents relating to our club's early history. The most impressive documents were the original Letters Patent, with a crumbling, official red wax seal, incorporating the University Women's Club of Toronto, dated October 12, 1929 and the original Memorandum of Agreement of Incorporation signed by the five subscribers agreeing to the incorporation.

Since that time, so long ago, UWC members have forged ahead building a dynamic club that continues to provide educational opportunities for the advancement of women through social and intellectual pursuits. We have such an impressive history to treasure and a vital future ahead.

CLUB NEWS

EXPLORE AFRICA

Please consider joining Explore Africa, a fundraising series of virtual events in support of African grandmothers. Money raised goes to African grandmothers, supported by the Stephen Lewis Foundation's partner organizations, who are facing the challenge of raising a generation who has lost its parents to AIDS-related illnesses.

May 13 - Discover African Art with our very own Arlene Kushnir

May 27 - Safari 101 - An in-depth look at the origin and history of safari in East Africa and why it has become a bucket list experience for travelers.

More details can be found at <https://grandmotherspartneringwithafrica.com>

INVITATION FROM UWC NORTH YORK

UWC North York is inviting all members, especially all book lovers to join them on May 5th for the launch of Contemporary African Voices. The inaugural event celebrates Nigeria. The poster has all the details. Registration is through EventBrite and is FREE! Click here to register.

THE SON OF THE HOUSE
A STORY OF RELATIONSHIPS, GENDER AND CHANGING TRADITIONS

CONTEMPORARY AFRICAN VOICES • WEDNESDAY, MAY 5 • 12:00-1:30 PM ET

Join us for the launch of Contemporary African Voices, a webinar series shining a light on acclaimed sub-Saharan writers. The series aims to amplify African voices and to educate by introducing stories deeply rooted in Africa written by Africans. We come to know a country by reading its writers.

Travelling virtually to Lagos, Ismaila Alfa will welcome Cheluchi Onyemelukwe-Onuobia, for the release in Canada of her debut novel, The Son of the House. Pulsing with vitality and intense human drama, the novel is set against four decades of life in vibrant Nigeria, celebrating the resilience of women as they navigate and transform what still remains a man's world.

DR. CHELUCHI ONYEMELUKWE-ONUOBIA • KEYNOTE SPEAKER
Dr. Cheluchi Onyemelukwe-Onuobia is a Nigerian health lawyer, academic and writer trained in Nigeria and Canada who works in the areas of health, gender and violence against women and children. She holds a doctorate degree in law, specialising in Health Law, Ethics, and Policy from Dalhousie University, Canada. Dr. Onyemelukwe-Onuobia is passionate about improving health outcomes in Nigeria and other developing countries, using both law/policy instruments.

ISMAILA ALFA • HOST
Ismaila Alfa, a CBC Radio broadcaster and journalist, hosts Toronto's top-rated morning radio program, METRO MORNING. Raised in Nigeria and Winnipeg, he studied civil engineering and toured Canada and the United States as a hip hop musician for almost a decade before joining CBC Radio in Winnipeg in 2008.

SCOTT FRASER • PUBLISHER
Scott Fraser, the President of Dundurn Press, obtained the North American rights for The Son of the House. He will introduce the author and explain why he made the decision to publish an African voice and story.

There is no charge for this event; however, we welcome and appreciate all donations made to the Grandmothers Campaign supporting the Stephen Lewis Foundation. African grandmothers are grappling with the devastating double impact of HIV/AIDS and COVID-19.

MEMBERS IN THE COMMUNITY

The interests and community involvement of our members is fascinating. We recently learned that Heather Mitchell is involved with an organization called Blue Flag Canada operated by Swim Drink Fish.

We asked Heather to tell us about this organization, and how she is involved. Thank you, Heather!

It's almost beach time. Vaccines may let us go there. But which beach is clean and safe? SwimDrinkFish, can help. It is a nonprofit organization which inspects beaches and marinas. It awards a Blue Flag for passing the inspection. Operators want Blue Flags because they attract visitors.

The Blue Flag program is new to Canada (only 13 years old) but long established in Europe (33 years old). Europeans prefer and look for Blue Flag beaches knowing they have been inspected.

Not just a short simple inspection, as I found out when I volunteered for SwimDrinkFish in the summer of 2020. I went to Woodbine Beach with 81 things to look for and three hours to do it. To my surprise, because Woodbine Beach is a City of Toronto Beach, it did not get a perfect score. Its first-aid kit was partly buried in the sand, difficult to find, and all the lifeguards were off their stations for at least an hour. A volunteer with different training takes water samples.

SwimDrinkFish reviews all the volunteers' reports. Minor problems, such as I found, are easy to correct to keep the Blue Flag flying. More serious problems, and the beach or marina will lose the Blue Flag. That happened to Outlet Beach in Sandbanks Provincial Park in 2020.

Water quality changes from day to day. SwimDrinkFish has an app for that. <https://www.swimdrinkfish.ca/swim-guide>.

MORNING BOOK CLUB

Thursday, May 6th
at 10:30 am.

Book: The Doctor Will Not See You Now by Jane Poulson

Autobiography of Dr. Jane Poulson, the first blind person in Canada to become a practising doctor. Poulson suffered from diabetes and because of the disease, lost her sight and then experienced severe heart problems. Nonetheless she was an extremely accomplished doctor, published widely in leading medical journals, and showed great courage and endurance to all who knew her. She wrote this book during the last two years of her life.

CURRENT EVENTS

The group will convene on Wednesday May 12 and May 19 at 5:00 pm. In order to remain current, the topic will be identified in the reminder memo which Haley usually sends out the day before the meeting. It seems to work well to let members know and research the topic so that they can decide if the issue is of interest and whether they wish to contribute to the discussion.

Circumstances seem to change from day to day so we will attempt to remain relevant to the interest of our members.

ADVOCACY

INSPIRATION

Message from the Rev. Malcolm Sinclair, retired from the Metropolitan United Church, Toronto.

You're not imagining it, nobody seems to want to talk right now. Messages are brief and replies late. Talk of catch ups on Zoom are perpetually put on hold. Group chats are no longer pinging all night long.

*It's not you.
It's everyone.
We are spent.
We have nothing left to say.
We are tired of saying "I miss you" and "I can't wait for this to end".
So we mostly say nothing, put our heads down and get through each day.*

*You're not imagining it.
This is a state of being like no other we have ever known because we are all going through it together but so very far apart.*

*Hang in there my friend.
When the mood strikes, send out all those messages and
Don't feel you have to apologise for being quiet.*

No one is judging.

CELEBRATING MOTHERS

Spring is here which is hard to believe, but so is the month of May and shortly after that Mothers' Day.

This month our Advocacy Committee has decided to do a small yet heart-felt project for the young mothers at Humewood House. After some brainstorming, we decided on a Mother's Day Gift Bags project. Thanks to Leslie Giroday for sharing this idea, alongside all of our supportive members for their generous donations to the project. I am sure the mothers will be thrilled!

We have also received more photos from Humewood in regards to our joint project regarding buildings restoration and refurbishment. On April 8th we were delighted to meet with Marg Campbell the Executive Director of Humewood, as well as Director of Resource Development Rachel on behalf of Massey's Centre for Mothers. As we've recently come to find out the two organisations will be merging in July. We couldn't be more pleased to see and hear about the true difference being made in the community and look forward to continuous work with both organisations in the near future.

Finally, I wish all members a dear and happy Mothers' Day.

- Cecilia Mende

SCHOLARSHIP NEWS

SCHOLARSHIPS

Our committee is prepared and excited to get to work on this year’s applications. We have been in contact with all of our schools and the response has been very enthusiastic. This year we will award six $5000 scholarships and a one-time Susan Freeman Scholarship of $2000 in our UWC Toronto Scholarship category. Because of the incredible generosity of the Mary Macdonald family, a third $25,000 scholarship will be awarded to a student from the former City of York schools.

We continue our support of three young women from Iqaluit and beginning this year we will provide two $5,500 scholarships to the Children’s Aid Foundation for students who have been in care.

Stay tuned for a list of our scholarship recipients in our next newsletter!

I would like to thank your committee in advance for their dedication to one of our most cherished commitments- supporting young women on the margins to continue their educational journeys. They are Sharon Abel, Marianne Anderson, Lily Contento, Susan Freeman, Doris Geddes, Jane Hamer, Liz Mowat, Penny Vincent, and Talisha Ramsaroop.

I have attached some correspondence from Cassidy-Ann Netser from Iqaluit studying at Dalhousie.

We also received letters of thanks and gratitude from the Children’s Aid Foundation and our first recipient Kelly Thompson who has just completed her degree as a Specialist in Mental Health HBSc at U of T.

- Chris Ward

SCHOLARSHIP NEWS

CORRESPONDENCE FROM THE CHILDREN'S AID FOUNDATION

Dear Susan and Chris,

On behalf of everyone at Children's Aid Foundation of Canada and the children and youth we serve, thank you so much for University Women's Club's new scholarship commitment towards our Post-Secondary Education Program. Your gift of $11,000 will support two deserving students for the 2021- 2022 academic year. Given that we are working from home, we have had to adjust our systems slightly. As such, you will be receiving another more general letter in the mail along with a gift acknowledgment.

We are deeply inspired by the University Women's Club's compassion to help ensure that youth from the welfare system are much better prepared for success in life. Your support empowers participants to take on their ever-increasing responsibilities associated with emerging adulthood by encouraging them to pursue their academic goals. Because of your commitment, our youth will be more likely to be employed in stable jobs and much less likely to experience unemployment, financial instability, homelessness and other poor outcomes.

Without your generosity, we would not be able to allow Canada's most vulnerable youth to receive education to help them gain stability and independence. We truly appreciate the lasting impact you are making in their lives.

Sincerely,

Jane Durno
Director, Special Projects
Children's Aid Foundation Canada

LETTER FROM CASSIDY-ANN

Ublaattiaq Chris!(good morning)

I just wanted to let you know that I have signed up for two summer courses (International Development I and Earth Sciences) and might sign up for a third course (International Development II).

This semester definitely was better than the last. I found that taking four courses rather than five gave me the rest I needed, and it looks like I will go back to five courses per semester in my third year and graduate within my initial timeline.

I've enjoyed my classes a lot this year, especially law. Taking intro to law part one and two has proven to me that I am in the right degree and that I'm passionate about justice and advocating for indigenous peoples.

Thank you so much for supporting my education.

Qujannamiik (thank you),

Cassidy-Ann

KELLY'S NOTE OF GRATITUDE

Dear University Women's Club,

Thank you very much for giving me the opportunity of receiving this scholarship. With my family situation and university, things have definitely not been easy financially. This support is extremely helpful as I am leaving care in November and must find a job for income. Without this support, it would have been difficult to budget for my textbooks and other expenses. I am extremely inspired about receiving this award from a club that supports the empowerment of women and aspire to create change for women in the community. I am extremely grateful for your generosity and I hope my academic journey will make you proud.

Sincerely,

Kelly Thompson

PAST EVENTS

BRONWYN ROE | APRIL 19

"Building the Case for a Better Earth: Using the Power of the Law to Fight Climate Change"

We were very pleased to welcome Bronwyn Roe, a lawyer with Canada's largest environmental law charity, Ecojustice, to our Zoom Speakers' Series on April 19. Bronwyn spoke about Ecojustice's mission to use the full force of the law to defend nature, combat the climate emergency and fight for a healthy environment for all.

Bronwyn discussed several of the cases that Ecojustice has taken on, among them the precedent-setting Mathur v. Ontario case, in which Ecojustice is representing seven young climate activists who are challenging the Ontario government's inaction on climate change.

Bronwyn's talk about the fight for a safe and healthy environment was compelling, and reminded us how young people are so often in the vanguard of that fight.

SAVE THE DATE

ZOOM SPEAKER: JEAN TEILLET | MONDAY, JUNE 14 AT 4:00 PM

"The Northwest is our Mother: The Story of Louis Riel's People"

Plan to join us on Zoom at 4:00 pm on Monday, June 14, for what promises to be a fascinating talk by Jean Teillet, one of Canada's most distinguished authorities on the Métis Nation.

The great-grandniece of Louis Riel, Professor Teillet is an Indigenous rights lawyer and negotiator, a frequent lecturer and author, and the holder of numerous awards for her outstanding contributions to Indigenous justice initiatives.

On June 14, Professor Teillet will share with us the compelling history of the struggle for rights and justice of the Métis Nation, drawing from her recent book, The Northwest Is Our Mother. Acclaimed as a "scholarly, thoroughly researched, historically accurate and completely engaging account of the Métis nation", The Northwest Is Our Mother is published by Harper Collins Canada. Those wishing to learn more about this part of Canada's history in preparation for Professor Teillet's talk can find the book on Amazon or through Indigo Books.

Haley will send out the zoom link prior to the event.
